CIELO TRANQUILLO PLAT

Cielo Tranquillo... Tranquil skies... yes.

Early in the morning, the sky is alive with brilliant shades of red, orange, pink and fuchsia. The sun shines down and shares her warmth, and the sky is the bluest blue and the clouds are whiter than white.

When the day is done, we see the inspiration of the “Purple Mountains Majesty”, as the mountains begin to fade in the sunset, and turn a wondrous purple.

The sky is once again filled with the brilliance of the setting sun, and the night dresses the sky in a million stars and once again we are filled with wonder!

Call us for an appointment to come see!
